Evangeline.

[Musical notes and text]

Go not, happy day,
Yet a moment stay;
Brief has been thy measure,
Tarry but an instant

in thy flying,
Ere the dusky night comes on;
In thy flight above,
Thou hast seen our love.

Thou hast mark'd our pleasure,
Listen to the burden of our sighing,

Haste, oh haste not to be gone.
Birds around are calling, sweet notes singing,
Dews are not yet falling,

Slumber bringing;
Fade not from our sight, yield not to the night;
Sunbeams have not ceased their

All we have is light,
Making shadows bright;
All earth's many cares
laying.
